

Dr. Hope Beavers, PhD, LICSW, Director of Well-Being

Dr. Hope Beavers is a licensed clinical social worker with over a decade of experience in her field. She leverages her extensive background to assist individuals, families, and organizations in navigating the healing journey from trauma and adversity.

Raised in the culturally vibrant areas of Washington, D.C., and PG County, MD, her dedication to healing is deeply connected to her own life experiences and academic achievements. She holds a Ph.D. in Social Work Administration from Walden University, a Master of Social Work from Howard University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from Fayetteville State University. Dr. Hope infuses her personal journey into her practice, fostering hope and resilience in every interaction, both personal and professional.

In addition to her professional role, Dr. Hope embraces multiple identities—wife, mother, clinician, sister, friend, CEO, visionary, and collaborator—blending her professional expertise with personal growth. Beyond her work with individuals and families, she is particularly passionate about supporting the “strong friend,” advocating for those who continuously uplift others, believing they too should receive support.
